about this blog, Brah, Avtar, "Diaspora, Border, and Transnational Identities.". Cartographies of Diaspora. 1996. In this important essay, Brah introduces the concept of diaspora space, as the location where concepts of diaspora, border, and the politics of location are made immanent—that is, where they are played out along multiple axes of power. This space includes all humans in a given location, not only those who have been dispersed: " the native is as much a diasporian as the ...
